

June 1, 2009

DALLAS, TX - Blue Dog Gaming is pleased to announce that Arrow International, Inc. / E-max Gaming Corporation [Cleveland, OH] has completed the acquisition of the assets of Blue Dog.

Arrow is recognized as the world's largest manufacturer of charitable and social gaming solutions. The addition of Blue Dog® to the Arrow family of products will allow Arrow International to complement its current E-max® line of electronic products. The new expanded electronic gaming line from Arrow will provide its customer base with both a broader line of electronic products as well as exciting new games.

Arrow International will continue to market these electronic products under the familiar and valued Blue Dog brand name.

To find out more about Arrow International and its constantly expanding product line, visit www.arrowinternational.com

Thank you for your continued support!